

HOLOCAUST CURRICULUM CASES FOR TEACHERS IN GRADES 6-8

Jeff Leibovitz Special Collection of Holocaust Education Materials

www.wiu.edu/qc/library/leibovitz_collection

2 Cases

"You Can Make A Difference"

TEACHING ABOUT THE HOLOCAUST

Cases include Curriculum Guides, Literature, Posters and other Media

1 Case

"They Made a Difference"

TEACHING ABOUT RESCUERS & RESISTERS

New Case in 2018 VOICES FROM THE HOLOCAUST: Teaching with Diaries and Memoirs

Located at

WIU-Quad Cities Library

3300 River Drive

Moline, Illinois 61265

309/762-1598

(call to schedule curriculum case checkout)

A Curriculum Case set is also located at

Mississippi Bend AEA, 729-21st St, Bettendorf, IA 563/359-1371

Material in these cases promote...

Treating others respectfully and fairly; Being compassionate and kind;
Working together with others; Being courageous; Being determined and resourceful;
Persevering and not giving up; Understanding that choices have consequences;
Embracing differences; Developing a sense of questioning.

"Let us not forget, that there is always a moment when the moral choice is made. Often because of one story, or one book, or one person, we are able to make a different choice—a choice for humanity, for life."

Elie Wiesel, Holocaust Survivor, Author & Scholar