

Quad Cities Yom HaShoah Committee Holocaust Essay and Visual Arts Contests

Ida Kramer Children and the Holocaust Essay Contest

Children were especially vulnerable to the Nazi killing machine during the Holocaust. It's estimated that 1.5 million children, nearly all Jewish, were murdered during the Holocaust, either directly or as a direct consequence of Nazi actions. The purpose of this essay contest is to record the stories that must be told to yesterday's, today's and tomorrow's children.

Meyer and Francis Shnurman Holocaust Visual Arts Contest

The Theme of the Meyer and Frances Shnurman Holocaust Visual Arts Contest is "Imagery and Expression: A Visual Response to the Holocaust." Students must convey the theme using painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, collage or video.
